Affiliates and other safety equipment are made of plastic, styrofoam, and velcro. Cole said their safety equipment is made of a variety of materials, including leather, and heavy cloth. "So, you're comfortable with the safety equipment, but there's more," Cole said. "We also have a variety of safety equipment in addition to the shop carriages, including a full-service biker's helmet." Cole said his shop carries anything bike-related, including helmets, knee and elbow pads. "We own a whole store selling safety equipment for you so you don't need to worry about it," Cole said. "We don't recommend anybody to ride without a helmet and without safety equipment in your pockets." Cole recommended that kids who want to ride to wear safety equipment.
