With Bird on guard, Huskies will soar

BY CASSIE NOWAK

The Tattoo

The UConn women's basketball team in the last decade has been as dominant as when Michael Jordan was playing for the Chicago Bulls.

The University of Connecticut is known across the country as the powerhouse for women's college basketball. The Huskies have been to the Final Four in each of their five seasons in Storrs.

It is no surprise that Geno Auriemma has had many successful seasons in Storrs. In his 17 years as head coach of the women's team, he has led the Huskies to a National Championship and three Big East Tournament Championships.

Bird looks to be a leader in her team to another Final Four this year.

I agree.

So, for all you dance commitment phobes out there: cause a huge problem, right? No!

I mean, can we even go to the bathroom without a rule?

Absolutely.

Let friends from other schools in, fun without all the unnecessary bags carried in.
